

Adelmannsfelden
Ostalbkreis

Adelmannsfelden is a Swabian village in Germany's southwestern state of Baden-Württemberg, known for its charming countryside and rich heritage.

Clockwise from top left: Picturesque village pond – Chapel of St. Leonard and St. Barbara, built in 1473 and renovated in 1970 – Town hall with its wooden-shingle façade, built in 1914 – The skyline, featuring the 1130-built St. Nicholas Church and the castle of the Adelman family on the left

